
Job description

Threshold Community Program

Associate Counselor, Therapy

Threshold Community Program

Threshold Community Program is looking for an enthusiastic, compassionate, and hard-working individual who seeks to join a community of advocacy and empowerment where contribution and collaboration are priorities. We value experience in disability support, special education, mental health, adolescent and young adult services, creative therapies, and social justice work.

TCP offers competitive salaries, full benefits packages and significant vacation time. More importantly, we are a community of dedicated professionals united in our mission of progressive support of marginalized peoples and are an equal opportunity employer.

About the Organization

Our mission is to support the developmental and educational growth of adolescents and adults who are on the autism spectrum or who face other related issues, in a program that emphasizes social-emotional development as an essential foundation for communication, logical thinking and perspective taking. Threshold Community Program strives to improve the quality of life for its participants and their families by tapping into each person's potential to develop relationships, communicate, and problem solve. Our program provides educational services, mental health counseling, transition support, family services and support, and much more.

Responsibilities of Associate Counselor, Therapy position

- Lead and/or assist individual and group sessions in a variety of content areas including: counseling or Floortime, academics, transition, affinities, fitness, and social-emotional development.
- Understand and use appropriate strategies and interventions in individual and group sessions to support academic, transition, or social emotional needs.
- Interact with participants using the DIR/Floortime model.
- Create individualized curriculum, learning or treatment plan objectives and/or activities, and provide documentation with semester long session plans for each session you lead or co-lead.
- Collaborate with families, staff, and outside professionals using professional communication
- Effectively integrate concepts of diversity, equity and inclusion in teaching and classroom culture

Requirements

- Master's degree in counseling or a related field
- Georgia licensure or actively pursuing licensure
- Experience working with a neurodiverse population
- Belief in the critical importance of diversity, equity and inclusion in the life of an organization so as to foster a sense of belonging and respect

- Excellent written and oral communication skills
- Adaptability in dealing with change or unexpected events to ensure the general welfare of the organization
- A positive outlook, flexibility, strong desire to work with children, adolescents, and adults and a collaborative, nurturing nature are necessary

Compensation and Benefits

- Base salary $32,000 annually with opportunity for additional $3,000-$12,000 with after hours and summer work, full benefits package
- Periodic bonus pay
- Generous vacation schedule
- Biannual performance-based bonuses
- Yearly professional development funding
- Regular in-service trainings and potential for specific certifications

Work Remotely

- No

Job Type: Full-time

Pay: From $32,000.00 per year

COVID-19 considerations:

Vaccinations required